DOUBLE WEDDING-The announcement of a double wedding at the Congremagnificent edifice with a large crowd of invited guests. The happy couples were William Bryce and Miss Rosa Hopping. and William Hopping and Miss Agnes Bryce. The first named couple, with Bryce, with usters, Fred. Mathes and Will Long, came in at the main entrance, and at a given signal the bridal parties with the ushers, all in a line, appeared before the officiating minister, Rev. Cristy. Mr. Bryce and Miss Hopping were first united in the boly bonds of organ in a skillfut manuer.

On leaving the church the couples went to the home of Mr. Hopping on the lighlands, where a reception was held, and congratulations from invited friends extended.

However joyous was the occasion, it was not devoid of its sadness. When Mr. Bryce went for his mail yesterday morning, there was a letter from his father in Fort Gratiot, Mich., regretting wishing both son and daughter unalloyed happiness. The letter was mailed from the Michigan home last Monday, leaving the Senior Bryce in supposed good health; but the sequel demonstrates now endden and unexpectedly the Great Master summons his earthly people. William Bryce returned to his residence him. It told in a few words from a brother "that father is dead and will be buried next Monday. Come if possible."
